

Pozniak Safety Associates Speaking Reference Quotes For Eldeen Pozniak

Eldeen is a story-teller, weaving the message of her presentation throughout a variety of life experiences that bring the message home to each individual in the room. While her background is occupational health, safety and environment, her message transcends that sector and is applicable to many industries and settings. She is equally comfortable in corporate boardrooms and on the international stage as she is at the bottom of a mine talking to miners about working safely in order to go home at the end of the day."

Wayne Glover – Associations First

Eldeen takes the stage to a video of a little mouse dancing to "I Believe in Miracles". You will soon learn that with Eldeen on board, there is no need to wish for miracles. She delivers. Though at some times it may seem miraculous, she continually produces prompt, pragmatic, and professional results, as she amazes her audiences.

Skipper Kendrick – Safety Consultant & Professional Speaker

Eldeen is consistently an insightful and thoughtful leader and speaker. Eldeen has the ability to relate to people on all levels of organizations and cultures from the stage, creating an engaged, collaborative and fun environment to learn.

David Beatty

The most impressive speaker I have ever heard. She was dynamic, charismatic, and clearly so invested in safety. I cried, I laughed, and I was awe-struck by some of the photos of people performing unsafe tasks she showed from her travels around the world. She should be used in our corporate safety meetings, whenever possible. If she cannot get people to buy into a culture of safety, no one will. It was an absolute pleasure, to have the opportunity to hear her speak.

SaskEnergy Supervisor

I reflect often on the conference last spring—Eldeen Pozniak - you are truly an inspiration.

Pozniak Safety Associates Speaking Reference Quotes

Eldeen gave a one day safety seminar for our supervisors and they all commented on how Eldeen opened their eyes. She is a genuine speaker, trainer and safety professional who takes safety personal and has a gift for conveying the importance of taking safety seriously

Kevin Yaganiski – Quality & Safety Manager – International Road Dynamics Inc.

I have worked with Eldeen for years. She is an experienced, knowledgeable and detail oriented professional and speaker. I have been particularly impressed with her knowledge and understanding of the skills associated with the development of effective business cultures that has moved and inspired our leadership to new levels of understanding and action with safety. Eldeen will always be one who's opinion is well respected and considered.

John Bennett – Vice President at M.C. Dean

Eldeen is an engaging and entertaining speaker with impressive knowledge and understanding of industrial safety. She imparts potentially contentious information with consideration for the point of view of the audience, and expresses the importance of the implications without using undue scare tactics.

Tara Zrymiak – Senior Process Engineer at SNC - Lavalin

I have been the Chair of the Western Conference on Safety for the last decade. Eldeen has been an invited key speaker at our conference on several occasions and has always done a fantastic job. She is a world class speaker on occupational health and safety who combines a passion for our field with the drive to stay on the leading edge and yet can still relate easily to everyone from the front line worker to the highest level company and government officials. In my opinion, she is one of the most highly respected Occupational Health and Safety Professionals in Canada.

Terry Swain – President at Pacific Safety Center Ltd.

Eldeen Pozniak is an OMG moment. Yes, she is a life-long moment. She makes you rise from your hangover/coffee buzz/ feigned illness to avoid this meeting kinda slumber to really, actually, truly pay attention. She captivates. She engages. She draws the most complacent been-there-done-that employees into the conversation. Eldeen's audience shift forward on their chairs to breathe with her. Her words become theirs, her ideas their seeds of growth.
